

ARTWORK NEEDED!

for the Bancroft Variety Show program

Create artwork that illustrates the show's theme

“Seize the Day”

Unplug, and sharpen your senses and your pencil! The show is all about the present...celebrating the here and now...taking advantage of today...moving and shaking...squeezing the day! If you'd like to participate, submit a drawing to your teacher, or put it directly into the variety show box outside the school office by Friday, March 28th. One drawing will be chosen for the program cover and others may be used inside. If you have any questions, contact Julie Dalton at sixdaltons@mac.com.

The show is Wednesday, April 9th at 5:00 pm at the Collins Center-Andover High School. Come join the fun! Order your tickets on the PTO website at <http://www.bancroftpto.org>.

Guidelines:

- Use standard 8 ½ x 11 white paper or fold the standard paper in half to be 5 ½ x 8 ½.
- The artwork must be vertical and dark enough to be copied clearly.
- You do NOT need to incorporate the title Seize the Day into your artwork, but you may do so.
- Check spelling.
- Only hand drawings – no computer graphics
- Put your name, grade and teacher on the back of the artwork.

“Today is a gift. That's why they call it the present.”

~original author unknown