

Author Visit January 12th!

How many times do you try before you give up? This is the question that little Plink considers after failing to fall repeatedly. This story helps children understand that learning to do things is not always easy and sometimes it takes the support and love of others to succeed.

Your child has the opportunity to purchase a book signed by the author, Kirsti Call. The retail price is $17.99, but she is offering a special school price of $15.00.
